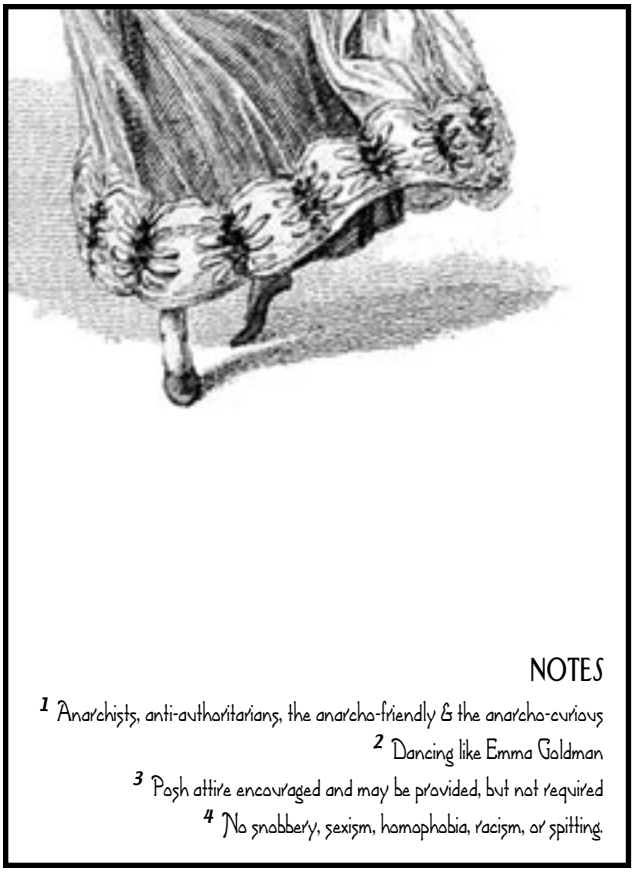
BLACK FLAG BLACK TIE

Saturday April 19, 7pm

Showcasing radical cinema since the turn of the 21st Century, the 8th Annual Chicago Anarchist Film Festival (May 2-May 4) will not disappoint with a fresh line up of features and shorts for the city that is the birthplace of Mayday (labor day to the rest of the world).

http://home.comcast.net/~more_about_it/

Midwest Books to Prisoners is a not-for-profit and all-volunteer-run group that sends reading material free of charge to inmates in the Midwest. This project relies on generous donations of books by individuals and benefits like this to pay for the ongoing need for postage. http://www.freewebs.com/mwbtp/



NOTES

[1] Anarchists, anti-authoritarians, the anarcho-friendly & the anarcho-curious

[2] Dancing like Emma Goldman

[3] Posh attire encouraged and may be provided, but not required

[4] No snobbery, sexism, homophobia, racism, or spitting.

You[1] are most cordially invited to attend a swank affair

BLACK FLAG BLACK TIE

Saturday April 19, 2008

Engaged at the lovely Q-Studios
3rd Floor, 2328 North Milwaukee Avenue, Chicago

7-9 pm Dinner of delicious tidbits and delectable edibles
8-10 pm Variety Show with delightful performances & divine pageantry
10 pm-12:30am Dance chock full of Emma-liscious rhythmic activity[2]

$10-20 sliding scale, benefits Chicago Anarchist Film Festival and Midwest Books to Prisoners

THE REVOLUTION WILL BE FANCY[3]

Uncouth behavior[4] will not be tolerated

For information and advance tickets or to RSVP, please email caff@risevp.net
http://home.comcast.net/~more_about_it/blackflagblacktie.html

- see notes on facing page -